Join us for an informative session as we explore the complex landscape of employee benefits. Our presentation, “Crack the Benefits Code: Knowing your options for health care coverages”, will guide you through the maze of benefits options, for one employee or 99. Empower yourself to make informed choices that foster both employee well-being and organizational success.

Attend this seminar to learn:

- The three categories of healthcare coverage
- Options available to Montana businesses
- Options available with business locations and/or employees outside of Montana

Presenter:

For over 25 years, Jennifer Green has been building and growing businesses by coaching clients in the arena of benefits options. She is often described as “The Connector”; she knows the power of collaboration in empowering maximum results. The goal of her company, HELLO CASHFLOW, is to free up processes and streamline offerings to increase the overflow of resources for her clients. She resides in Kalispell, Montana, and is a business enthusiast in rural, low population areas.
